

GT MEN'S FLAG FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Vol.5, Issue7

Week 6

A classic match up was on display this Saturday. The Cowboys have an arsenal of weapons on offence and a defense that often blitzes from any where and every where. The 49ers have a conventional offensive attack that features a ground game anchored by Mike Wilson, and an air show that features three lethal weapons (Lachiusa, Bouie, and Gmitter). The Cowboys went up top and scored on a 60 yard pass play. Frank Selvaggio hit Brian Schilling and Brian ripped through the secondary like a buzz saw through cardboard. Lachiusa caught the 49ers first TD by slipping a couple would be flaggers. Gmitter caught the second, which proved to be the game winner. We would have seen alot more scoring if weren't for the way these two teams play defense. Both McBride and Selvaggio were unable to get comfortable with relentless pass rushes from their opposing defensive lines. Dennis Allen, Mike O'Hare, and Jim LaRuez forced Frank to scramble and throw quickly. While McBride was attacked from everywhere. The Grape brothers, Carl Fantauzzo and Rob Mosjej all got in on the action. The Cowboys suffered more than a loss when Scott VanOreman went out with a knee injury. Scott had been a real productive player who was able not only to open some run lanes for Fantauzzo but also give Selvaggio a little breathing room.

Ollie, Ollie Oxen Free!

Anne Cash's a skit before her husband, Mario speaks

Mario took some time off from coaching his Saints to come bring us the message the week. He started by having his lovely wife Ann do a brief skit about a little girl who went off to hide then found herself afraid and wanting to get back in the game. Mario uncovered the truth that most of us hide in one way our another. Many feel they can hide from God and not have to deal with reality. Some have many ways of hiding, we deny God all together. We come to church as if that fills an obligation or requirement. Some just foolishly put thinking about spiritual things for a latter time in life. Mario brought up the fact that on Sept. 11 2001, over 3,000 Americans went off to work thinking that they would have tomorrow, but did not. I like the fact that Mario said boldly, that you can choose not to believe in Jesus Christ but it doesn't neglect the fact that He is very real and that you will ultimately face him when enter into eternity. We have entered into our sixth week of our brief season, what is keeping you from choosing Christ? The little girl in the skit, called out those old time words Ollie, Ollie, Oxen Free!. All that is without can come in for free. Wow, just the words from a kids game, but also a type of the concept of God's plan for all of us. We all have sinned and come short of the glory of God. The fact that we have sin on us, separates us from God. God offered His Son Jesus Christ as payment for our sins against Him. We can enter into His presence by believing, trusting and obeying Jesus Christ and asking Him to be the Lord of our lives. Our we can stay separated from God and pay for our sins ourselves in the a real place called Hell. God doesn't want any of us to stay separate from Him. Come to Christ and be free from that sin.

THE VISION

To introduce men and their families, to the true Jesus Christ, in hopes that all that are called will enter into a real relationship with Him.

It's the Raiders in OT over the Titans

The Raiders thought that stopping John Bianca from catching TD passes would increase their chances for victory. The Raiders quickly realized that John is going to get his one way or another. The Titans scored first when Bianca stepped in front of a receiver and took the interception back 20 yards for a score. Both defenses traded blows back and forth to the opposing offences up to the last minute. Both teams showed offensive sparks, but neither could produce points. The Raiders Kevin Nichols had plenty of receptions. Will Salmon had a couple of nice runs. James Monroe showed that not only could he explode after QB's but he could play RB and use his speed and moves against defenses as well. The Titans Mark Hernandez enjoyed some modest success running the ball as well as Todd Shropshire. The Titans offence got going with receptions from Blizzard and Williamson, along with some nice keepers from Bill Titus. Both teams had a huge amounts of defensive highlights. Rob Oakden picked of a pass in a would be scoring drive against the Titans. John Pierre and Rick Harter had plenty of sacks. Jeff Phillips and Mark Ballister sacked Titus and forced quick throws often. Chris burke and Paul D'Ambrosio deflected passes and made flags all day long. Rick Hernandez and Kevin Nichols kept the Titans from scoring in regulation. The Raiders tied the game with less than a minute to go when Logory went to Jeremy Philips, who made a great reception with just enough real estate to get his feet in. Harter sacked Logory to give us our first OT this year. The Titans started with the first attempt and were successful as Bill Titus ran it in from 15 yards out. The Titans were unable to complete the extra point attempt. The Raiders answered the call by Logory hitting Rob Oakden for the score and with the game at stake the Raiders came through in a big way as Logory tossed the game winner to James Monroe.
